

Naramata Centennial on Video

The Centennial Committee is producing a video. You'll see all of the exciting moments of the Centennial year and learn about Naramata's past. You can see the preview of the video via You Tube. Go to www.youtube.com. Search "Naramata Centennial." It is 9 min. long. The full length (60 minutes, plus bonus features) DVD will be released in November, well before Christmas. Ordering in advance will ensure you have a copy reserved.

Mail a cheque payable to "NCA-Centennial Committee." DVD cost is $26, plus $4 if mailing is required. Mail to: NCA, Box 146, Naramata, BC, V0H 1N0. Or, you can order by phone through the Penticton Visitors Centre by credit card, 1-800- 663-5052.

This high quality video project is produced by Video Innovation Productions of Penticton. Craig Henderson of the Centennial Committee is the volunteer producer. Thanks to Discover Naramata and for a legacy grant from the Naramata Conservation Initiative for the funding of this important documentation of Centennial celebrations and local history.